

Your Building Property Information & Maintenance Schedule

- COMING SOON -

A requirement of legislative changes that affect how building contractors work with clients taking affect January 2015.

At the completion of works contractors must provide information relating to any guarantees/warranties that apply and information about maintenance requirements including a Maintenance Schedule guideline that will ensure Building Code durability requirements will be met.

The changes are the result of a comprehensive review of the Building Act 2004 aimed to improve the performance of the building and construction sector, and provide greater consumer protection.
